Headteacher Online Safety Letter

Dear Parents/Carers,

We hope you all had a lovely Easter break, I just wanted to remind you that, if they haven't done so already your child's teacher will be calling you over the next couple of weeks to offer any support around home school education. We appreciate this brings its own challenges so are happy to support in any way possible. We also hope that by keeping in touch, the children will continue to feel part of Iveson Primary as we are looking forward to the time that we can safely welcome you all back.

We are aware that children are possibly spending more time online so we thought it would be useful to send links to websites that support you as parents in keeping your child safe.

- Thinkuknow provides advice from the National Crime Agency (NCA) on staying safe online
- Parent info is a collaboration between Parentzone and the NCA providing support and guidance for parents from leading experts and organisations
- Childnet offers a toolkit to support parents and carers of children of any age to start discussions about their online life, to set boundaries around online behaviour and technology use, and to find out where to get more help and support
- Internet matters provides age-specific online safety checklists, guides on how to set parental controls on a range of devices, and a host of practical tips to help children get the most out of their digital world
- London Grid for Learning has support for parents and carers to keep their children safe online, including tips to keep primary aged children safe online
- Net-aware has support for parents and carers from the NSPCC, including a guide to social networks, apps and games
- Let's Talk About It has advice for parents and carers to keep children safe from online radicalisation
- UK Safer Internet Centre has tips, advice, guides and other resources to help keep children safe online, including parental controls offered by home internet providers and safety tools on social networks and other online services

The Government have also sent out some really useful guidance on supporting learning at home as can be accessed through the links below. Guidance on helping children aged 2 to 4 learn at home can be found here:

The Dfe are regularly updating their guidance so please continue to check their website for up to date information.

If you require any help or support please contact us via parentcontact@iveson-primary.co.uk, or phone the school on 0113 2256868 please note due to our efforts to limit the number of staff on site you may need to leave a message however someone will get back to you as soon as possible. Please also visit the school website, Facebook or Twitter accounts where you can access contact details for a wide range of support.

Yours sincerely
