Rationale

In the event of closure or isolation, Iveson Primary is committed to providing continuity of education to our learners and will do so through a process of remote (online) learning. Extensive remote learning would apply particularly in a situation in which learners or teachers are not able to attend school but are healthy and able to work as normal from home. This policy does not apply in absence due to illness.

Remote learning may also be appropriate in situations when learners, in agreement with the school, have a period of absence but are able to work at home, at least to some extent. This may apply in cases such as exclusion from school, or longer-term illness, assuming learners are able to complete schoolwork at home. Another relevant instance would be if, following an infectious disease outbreak, learners are self-isolating at home but are not suffering with relevant symptoms.

There is no obligation for the school to provide continuity of education to learners who absent themselves from school, with or without parental permission, in contravention to school or government guidance. This may apply, for example, if parents choose to take learners on holiday during term time. Similarly, this would apply if parents made the decision, without prior agreement with the school, to absent their children from school ‘as a precaution’, against official guidance, in the event of an outbreak of infectious disease.

1. Aims

This remote learning policy for staff aims to:

- Ensure consistency in the approach to remote learning for pupils who aren't in school
 - Set out expectations for all members of the school community with regards to remote learning
 - Provide appropriate guidelines for data protection

2. Roles and responsibilities

Staff members are responsible for providing the best possible opportunities for remote learning. Across key stages 1 and 2 Iveson use the Google Classroom learning platform and within EYFS Evidence Me is used. Work provided through remote learning should mirror that of the physical classroom, with the same high quality learning opportunities accessible to all.

Remote Learning leaders will support staff and monitor content and engagement of virtual classrooms.

2.1 Teachers

When providing remote learning, teachers must be available between 08.30 and 15.30 (or where staff work part time their contracted hours).

If they're unable to work for any reason during this time, for example due to sickness or caring for a dependent, they should report this using the normal absence procedure.

When providing remote learning, teachers are responsible for:

- Setting work
 - Setting work for their own class/specific children that are out of school. Work should be differentiated where possible to mirror the classroom.
 - Each week there should be lessons of the following subjects divided equally across the five working days - please note the length of the lessons will vary and this will be indicated on timetables
 - Maths (5 lessons including Arithmetic)
 - English (5 lessons including reading and SPaG)
 - Phonics (2 lessons for KS1)
 - Science (1 lesson)
 - Art/DT (1 lesson)
 - PE (2 lessons OR equivalent of 2 hours over the course of the week)
 - Music (1 lesson)
 - Computing (1 lesson)
 - History/Geography (up to 2 lessons)
 - Spanish (for Year groups studying this suggest shortening other Foundation subjects)
 - RE (1 lesson)
 - PSHE (1 lesson)
 - Work should be scheduled to show by 09.00 on the platform. This can be scheduled in advance during planning and preparation time.
 - Work will be uploaded to the relevant classroom with resources including classroom slides and videos alongside instructions from the teacher.
 - Teachers should upload the work that is planned for their class and ensure that planned work falls in line with the sequence of learning in school. It is the teacher of the child/children who are off school to ensure that the relevant work is uploaded.
 - Where videos are shared these should be age appropriate and teachers will have watched these prior to sharing.

- A minimum of three hours work must be set each day for KS1 and four hours for KS2
- Providing feedback on work
 - Children will upload their completed work directly to the task and it is expected that this work is marked within the following week
 - Feedback should be shared with pupils through comments, corrections, next steps and challenges.
 - Teachers should then return the assignment to the children if they have further work to complete (based on feedback).
 - Feedback should not be sent after 1700 or before 0800
 - Feedback should be given to all pieces that are submitted and should mirror the quality and depth expected in school
- Keeping in touch with pupils who aren't in school and their parents
 - Make regular contact with students through the platform (comments on work and the stream) as well as phoning parents (using withheld number or the school telephone) if pupils are not engaging with online learning.
 - Teachers are not expected to answer emails outside working hours and are encouraged to log off the classrooms by 1700.
 - Complaints or concerns by parents or pupils should be logged on CPOMS and remote learning leaders should be alerted to this – for any safeguarding concerns, refer to the section below.
 - If children are not completing work to an appropriate standard or within the allotted time frame teachers are expected to follow this up with parents and ensure that either on return to school or through remote catch-up interventions the child is provided with opportunities to catch up with their peers.
- Attending virtual meetings with staff, parents, and pupils
 - In the event of any virtual meetings taking place, please ensure that your appearance is professional, and you are dressed appropriately following the school's dress code.
 - Ensure that you are completing your meeting in an appropriate location (use a blank/neutral background and ensure there is no potential for interruptions/distractions around you).

2.2 Teaching assistants

If they're unable to work for any reason during this time, for example due to sickness or caring for a dependent, they should report this using the normal absence procedure.

- Supporting pupils who are not in school with learning remotely:
 - Teaching assistants should provide support to those pupils in their designated year group, or 1:1 as directed by their teacher

- Use school devices to access the data such as laptops iPads or desktops.

4.2 Processing personal data

Staff members may need to collect and/or share personal data (such as email addresses) as part of the remote learning system. If this processing is necessary for the school's official functions, individuals will not need to give permission for this to happen.

However, staff are reminded to collect and/or share as little personal data as possible online.

4.3 Keeping devices secure

All staff members will take appropriate steps to ensure their devices remain secure. This includes, but is not limited to:

- Keeping the device password-protected – strong passwords are at least 8 characters, with a combination of upper and lower-case letters, numbers, and special characters (e.g., asterisk or currency symbol)
- Ensuring the hard drive is encrypted – this means if the device is lost or stolen, no one can access the files stored on the hard drive by attaching it to a new device

Safeguarding Child Protection Policy found on Sharepoint (Iveson's secure cloud service) and on the School website.

Remote Learning and Safeguarding

Communicating with Parents/Carers

All communication between parents/carers and teachers needs to be through agreed channels these are.

- Email using the teachers school email address.
- Check-in calls using caller-id withheld function on personal phones – parents to be notified by whatsapp of the date and timescale teacher will contact them in so they know to answer their phones where possible this will be at least every two weeks.
- Staff are reminded that Google classroom is for communication between pupil and teacher should parents try and communicate on this forum they will be reminded to either email parent contact or phone the school office,
- Staff are not to give out or share any personal contact details.

At Iveson we deliver remote learning through Google Classroom

Pupils may comment, on Google classroom - staff are responsible for reminding them to and ensuring that they only talk about schoolwork in the 'Stream'. If need be staff may 'mute' them, i.e., stop them from posting or commenting, if they post anything that's inappropriate or bullying in nature, this will then be addressed in line with the school's Behaviour Policy.

Live sessions will follow the procedure laid out below.

- Streaming lessons
 - Teachers must be the first on and last out of live streaming sessions and should therefore log into the meet earlier than the time shared with children to ensure this happens
 - Streaming sessions are to be recorded in view only ensuring the children are muted and not visible during the session
 - Ensure all other tabs in your browser other than those needed for the session are closed
 - Record on your weekly overview/timetable when live streams are taking place

To record in Google Meet:

- In the meeting, click 'More' (the 3 dots) > 'Record meeting'
- Wait for the recording to start
- When you finish, click 'More' > 'Stop recording'
- Click 'Stop recording' again to confirm
- Wait for the recording file to be generated and saved to the Meet Recordings folder. The meeting organiser and the person who started the recording will also get an email with the recording link
- (You'll need to be using the computer version of Meet to record.)

- Live sessions/meets that require teacher to view the children

For some sessions/pupils it may be necessary to view the pupils - I.e., when providing a targeted booster group where children may be recording and showing their work within the session or where SEN children would benefit from face-to-face support. If this is the case

- Staff will notify the DSL and Remote Learning Needs prior to the meeting/session
- Notify the parents in advance that this will take place
- Remind parents to ensure children are dressed as they would for school (it is not necessary to be in school uniform but no pyjamas or nightwear) and are in a shared space in their home
- Record the session should we need to look back on this at a later date

- Telephone contact

- Staff may contact parents on the parents' number either by the school phone or by withholding their caller-id on their mobile. Under no circumstances should they contact a child on the child's mobile phone. A phone can be passed to a sibling where it is necessary for translation purposes
- Where calls are made for nurture sessions the call will need to be taken in a shared area of the home and a record of the call must be made on CPoms

6. Monitoring arrangements

This policy will be reviewed annually by Chelsea Bowes and Freya Wilde – Remote Learning Leads. At every review, it will be approved by the full Iveson Governing Body.
